DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 30-45 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hunt et al., (US 2004/0133848).

As per claims 30, 38 Hunt shows a method of processing data using a portable electronic device[0004, 0012,0065,0066], said method comprising: accessing first data comprising a web page(in fig.12); transcoding, using a processor of said portable electronic device[0065-0066], said first data to generate second data; and displaying, using a display device of said portable electronic device, said second data(in fig.12 element 304 and in expand mode below).

As per claims 31,39 Hunt shows displaying further comprises displaying said second data using a browser program, and wherein said transcoding further comprises transcoding said first data using a plug-in associated with said browser program(in fig.16-18 and description of figs).

As per claims 32,40 Hunt shows said first data comprises a plurality of frames, wherein said transcoding further comprises generating a menu associated with said plurality of frames, wherein said menu enables user selection of a particular frame of said plurality of frames, wherein said transcoding further comprises generating said second data to include a portion of said first data associated with said particular frame, and wherein said displaying further comprises displaying said portion of said first data associated with said particular frame(in fig.17 and section 0313).

As per claims 33, 41 Hunt shows web page comprises an image, and wherein said transcoding further comprises reducing a size of said image (as shown in figs.18, 19,22).

As per claims 34, 42 Hunt also teaches transcoding further comprises reducing said size of said image from a first size to a second size, wherein said second size is less than a resolution of said display device (in fig.22,23).

As per claims 35-37, 43-45 Hunt also teaches wherein said web page comprises an image, and wherein said transcoding further comprises reducing a pixel depth of said image said transcoding further comprises reducing a number of columns of said web page said transcoding further comprises removing redundant table definition tags to reduce a number of columns of said web page (in fig.21-28).

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 30-45 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
